PROVEN BENEFITS

- Offer choice while being strategic in your corporate giving. Align giving with volunteering, employee passions, and the needs of local communities.
- Further build capacity among your nonprofit grantees by guiding employee volunteers to them.
- Promote employees as Community Ambassadors. Connect employee volunteers to community needs and track the impact.
- Instead of saying “no” to donation requests, channel appeals from nonprofits to a valuable service. Help nonprofits build capacity by finding employee and community volunteers in the VolunteerMatch Network.
- Run recognition programs using standard reports.
- Manage company-sponsored events (communication, sign-ups, waitlisting, waivers, photos, and maps) for employees, partners, families, and retirees.

EMPLOYEE VOLUNTEER TOOLS

VolunteerMatch offers a suite of Web based tools for managing regional, national, and global programs. These help you administer special events, track employee volunteer hours, and measure program impact in the community – including industry specific data such as Community Reinvestment Act requirements.

COMMUNITY NETWORK

The VolunteerMatch Community Network is integrated with our tools, making volunteering easier. At launch, your employees and volunteer champions directly access the largest, most robust and diverse national network connecting volunteers with community needs.

STRATEGIC SERVICES & SUPPORT

We support your Employee Volunteer Program, from answering your day-to-day questions to serving as a strategic extension of your team. We also work closely with you to share best practices among leading corporations.

“Our employees love our annual Day of Service. VolunteerMatch makes it easy for us to manage the events. Afterward, everyone felt refreshed, revived, renewed and rebuilt.”

ELINORE ROBEY
Director of Community
Investor Services
Charles Schwab Foundation

“Employees seeking leadership or board opportunities within nonprofit agencies often find volunteerism helps them develop their leadership skills and talents even further. Our partner VolunteerMatch is a wonderful resource for helping to fill these and other nonprofit volunteer opportunities.”

ELLEN LUGER
Executive Director
General Mills Foundation

“Using VolunteerMatch has dramatically reduced the time required to manage our events at Target. Coordinating volunteers is no longer a full-time job. Thank you!”
