

The VolunteerMatch Preferred Partnership Program helps national nonprofit organizations simplify, diversify and support volunteer recruiting efforts across all of their affiliates.

The most trusted names in community service rely on VolunteerMatch's Preferred Partnership Program to recruit volunteers.

Preferred Partnership combines our Web-based management tools for affiliates with preferred access to the VolunteerMatch Network (10 million visits, 2008). We also support Preferred Partners and their affiliates with regular trainings and shared best practices.

Communications

Increase exposure and leverage the VolunteerMatch Network for your recruitment. Options include features on the VolunteerMatch home page, our newsletters, national press, and a unique landing page.

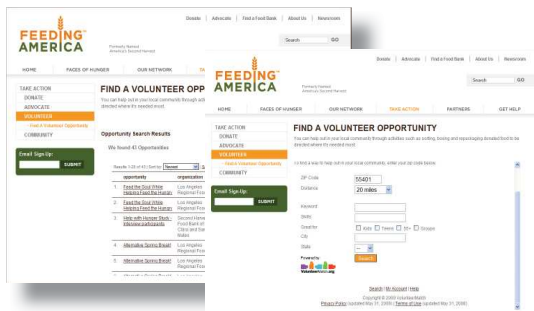

Listing Syndication

Automatic replication of each volunteer opportunity on an affiliate's Web site, your national site, VolunteerMatch.org, and all of our partner sites.

"Volunteers are the heart and the muscle of the American Red Cross. By helping each of our local chapters recruit new volunteers, VolunteerMatch enhances people's ability to provide lifesaving service to their local communities."
